

Rethink the Workplace

Join us for a provocative discussion with Dan Negroni, founder of launchbox, and a panel of successful managers and millennials on how to bridge the gap in the workplace.

Millennials represent over 36 percent of today's workforce, and will be over 75% of your employees and clients by 2025.

87% of companies report it costs between $15,000 and $25,000 to replace each millennial employee they lose.

More than 60% of millennials leave their company in less than 3 years.
